Dear Bob:

It has been brought to my attention that the situation in Argentina is becoming worse every day. In addition, it is alleged that there is a lot of pressure within the State Department to send arms to Argentina within the next few months, which is certain to make the situation more difficult.

Obviously, it would be helpful if you could prevail upon Secretary Vance to prevent further shipment of arms to Argentina.

I am also enclosing a copy of an article, which I think corroborates how bad the situation in Argentina has become. Would appreciate it if you would turn a copy of this article over to the Secretary.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

S. Harrison Dogole
